

Branch 2 Political Science

Training objectives: pedagogical, scientific, development-related objectives: The training of students to become specialized professionals to respond to the ongoing transformations in the field of political science by enabling them to meet the required qualifications dictated by these transformations in both disciplinary specialization and professional practice.

Targeted competencies

Keeping pace with the ongoing transformations in the fields of political science and public administration by:

- Staffing of the public administrations with knowledgeable and skillful competent professionals.
- Recognizing the ongoing transformation in the management of contemporary public organizations.
- Enabling students to meet the knowledge and skills required for the new public management.

Local and national employment opportunities

- Training students to work in: public administrations and local communities.